RUSSIA

- 755- 1 Ruble Copper Plate 1725 similar to Spassky Fig-130 but w/o the commemorative legend approx 7 1/8" square, 3 lbs 10 1/2 oz, excessively RARE, this specimen was salvaged from the river Daugava in Riga in 1932 and was offered to the Historical Museum of Riga City at that time, because the price was high and the museum already had three 1 Ruble Plates, the offer was declined by the Museum, however, the keeper of the Coin Cabinet purchased it for his personal collection, it is now being offered to collectors for the first time, the center designs on the eagle's breast are nearly worn through, otherwise the piece is in VF+ condition, nicely toned and very desirable, not having suitable photo equipment for picturing the entire coin, we picture only the five stamps at approx 2/3 actual size PLATES
